GRATITUDE

This monograph was made for all those football lovers and all those people who say that you work based on what you like, I am also very grateful to my teachers and my tutor Javier Zambrano who were great guides and people so that I can perform this great research.

SUMMARY

The purpose of this study will be to reflect on the impact that football has left us based on the great variety of players of good performance, so that people understand, as football increases its importance. This theme is very interesting for today's society, that's why I chose it; since football is the most popular sport in society. I think that for this I need to do interviews to people who know about the subject, who are true fans of the sport, to be able to gather different opinions and thus synthesize it better. This research has a purpose to show people that they understand that football is a great sport and that it continues to evolve and grow thanks to the great characters that help us to enjoy football better, finally concluding that in relation to this sport between more figures from different teams come out more competitive becomes and more will draw people's attention.

INTRODUCTION

The following monograph is based on the great players that the world has had during the last 3 years, doing a great study on the statistics and the records that these players have left, which show us that there is a lot of level since there are several players that are considered idols and the best in the world, research based on the idea that society understands how this great sport develops and evolves thanks to the great variety of figures in the world of football, making it much more attractive and competitive . But aside, how are these players out on the courts? , how are they like people? I think that in order to do all this I need to do surveys to people who know the subject, who are true sports fans, to be able to gather different opinions and synthesize it better. Still, do you think that football is just a sport or is it more than that?

CHAPTER I

SOCCER PLAYERS OF GOOD LEVEL IN WORLD DURING THE LAST 3 YEARS

1.1.-Soccer players of good level in Europe during the last 3 years.

1.1.1.- Cristiano Ronaldo

He is also called like cr7, the bug, the commander, etc. born on February 5, 1985, currently have 33 years old, have a height of 1.87 and 80 kg weight, is a Portuguese player who plays for Real Madrid and is currently considered one of the best players in the world and possibly the best. Many Real Madrid fans consider him the best in history due to the titles he has won with his team, in la Liga BBVA, Liga Cup, the Champions League and more.

Ronaldo is the leader of the current Real Madrid, his star, his scorer. His good performance has helped him get the captaincy of his country.

“At the present time, he is the top runner of the history of Real Madrid with 448 goals in just 9 years old, giving him an average of more than 50 goals per season.” Also, has been important since in the Champions League, the most important tournament in Europe at club level has been the scorer of the competition in the last 3 seasons and he is the historic scorer also.

He is a front very feared by the defenses since he is not just a governor in various tournaments with his team, but he is also the historical maximum runner in his country. Without any doubt, nobody can deny the great things that he has achieved in this sport because of his effort and dedication in the training and in his good nutrition. Because of his great trajectory, a very famous player has become a star player becoming the image by many sports marks and a great path as Nike.

“It is very highlighted also for being the first player to win 4 golden boots, being one of the two football players in history in winning more gold balls, five in total, three gold balls and two FIFA gold balls.” Cristiano has been so good who has achieved to be 12 years in the ideal team of the year and 11 consecutive times, having still years again to follow with this record.

1.1.2.- Antoine Griezmann

Also known as the “principito”, “grizi”, etc. born in France on March 21, 1991, having 27 years of age currently, with a height of 1.76 and a weight of 73 kg. Is a player who plays at the Atletico de Madrid from Spain at the present time while considered its maximum figure, because it is a lethal front in the bands and also its maximum scorer in the last years. His team is a club that has been evolving his level during the last years and all this is thanks to the great players that the club takes out like him.

It has taken a final of the league of champions to its team losing in criminals for its eternal rival, the Real Madrid. Also has achieved that his team is located between the first posts in The Liga BBVA and has got titles in other tournaments like the Europe League. “He is the owner of the French Selection, in which it dispute the Eurocopa of 2016, which is proclaimed sub-champion by being elected the best player of the tournament and also staying at the top runner.” in these 3 last years he has disputed international tournaments with the Atletico de Madrid, club in which Griezmann demonstrated his good level and evolved as a worldwide player, I am building his fame and the interest in marketing so that it promotes diverse brands. The one without having to be a front center. Has passed to take the courage of the team goal and passed the 110 goals with his club in less than 4 years.

Antoine with Messi and Ronaldo is considered between the three best players in the Liga BBVA and possibly of the three best in the world. Important brands like Nike or Adidas have requested their service to promote them. Griezmann achievement in 2016 entering the ideal team of the year, demonstrated that his career was his best year, as I arrived at the end of Eurocopa with his selection and at the end of the champions league with his team. Griezmann is the sample of a player who with effort and dedication without calling so much attention can be achieved in a great star and of the best, growing from little to little.

1.1.3.- Eden Hazard

Also known as the duke, is a Belgian football player who was born on January 7, 1991, having a height of 1.70 and a weight of 70 kg. “This midfielder that plays from the left side of the field, is very known for its speed, creativity, and technical skill. It is an explosive offensive midfielder that can control the game with its dribbles and change of rhythm.” the during these years without any doubt has been chosen as a figure on his team, the Chelsea FC in England, that plays the premier league, already that he is always among the club scorers and also an undisputable player, since he has achieved to be a champion of the premier league 2 times.

Hazard has achieved having a good level in the current football being considered a star in this sport, as in his club, which is a good team in the history of the premier league, which is considered the best league of football in the world. Currently not only a great reference in your team but also in your country, Belgium, which has already carried out classification years to the world, but in him he had club, has achieved to dispute a total of 300 parties, having one mark of 89 goals and 75 assistances (passes that end in goal). This player also has achieved sympathizing the company which many brands request its image for marketing and publicity. Thanks to this team of players, the Chelsea FC continues to be a great team, which is very feared and respected by rivals, even thoughts to confront equipment of the same level or even more.

1.2.- Soccer players of good level in South America during the last 3 years.

1.2.1.- Lionel Messi

Also known as the fleece, Lio, the Messias, D10S. Is an Argentine football player, born on June 24, 1987, has double nationality, the Argentina of birth and the Spanish. Has a height of 1.70 and a weight of 70 kg. Currently playing at Barcelona FC, a team where he has ever had all in his sports life, thanks to his excellent level as a front center and offensive wheel. He is considered the best player in the world and possibly the best in history, thanks to the no number of titles he has got and the records that happen break. Currently is the captain of your team and your country. And that is because he is the historic top scorer of Barcelona FC and of the selection of Argentina. In his club the Barca, he has 547 goals in 633 matches and in his country; it takes 64 goals in 125 games. Has won five gold balls like Cristiano Ronaldo. During these last years, he has won various Liga BBVA with the boat, and also various cups of the king.

A level of selection is not so honored because the Argentines are nothing thankful, but the last Argentine match in the great qualifiers, which was with Ecuador, Messi did the three goals of his country achieving it to classify it to the World Cup Russia of 2018. Currently is the official face of the Adidas sports brand. “With Argentina, he has disputed three world cups and was sub champion at the World Brazil 2014 and the Americas Cups of 2015 and 2016.” “We all know that it is considered with a lot of frequency as the best player in the world and history but that is not only for the titles it gets with its team but also for its distinctions like 5 gold balls, a golden ball and four Fifa balls of gold; obtaining the four first consecutively in addition to receive 5 gold boots.” due to his great game he has achieved 9 years in the ideal team and the five first years of a consecutive form.

1.2.2.- Neymar jr

It is a Brazilian player, having a height of 1.74 and a weight of 67 KG. Play second front, bone as an end, but no so close to the bands and closer to the arc. "Currently plays in the Paris Saint Germain of France, which hired it for a millionaire number of 222 million euros, becoming the most expensive soccer player of the history." Neymar a few years ago together with Messi and Suarez formed the front of the boat, at that time was the most feared and triumphant, as together they got a triplet with his team and won many titles.

He was a great goal of Barca in those years and as he was younger than Messi and Suarez was seen with more future, even as a future star to win the next balls and gold boots. But at the moment, that is in Paris Saint Germain of France, plays the Ligue 1, and it was in order to be champion in his League and the Champions League which he could not. With Paris, they have a total of 28 goals and 19 assists in the 30 matches they have played; during two of these three last years, I am part of 11 ideal of the year. At the level of the country, he is very much loved, he is considered his main figure and best forward at the national level. He has also won many distinctions, he has been a top scorer in the Champions League for 2015 with FC Barcelona, has been part of the 11 ideal of La Liga BBVA and La Ligue 1, considered among the best of current football.

1.2.3.- Luis Suarez

“Also known as El Pistolero, the killer, Lucho and more; is an Uruguayan player who plays as a center forward at FC Barcelona, he was born on January 24, 1987. He has a height of 1.82 and a weight of 82 kg.” And if he was part of that malefic trident that had the boat made up of Messi, Neymar and, Suarez himself, until one of the trident was sold, but still did not affect on the level of the team, since his front was always more lethal and scorer, the same Charrua.

Luchito is considered the best 9 in the world, due to his great fight and efficiency in being able to make goals. Currently with FC Barcelona, he has a total of 152 goals and 76 assists in 198 games; On the other hand, with his selection, Uruguay, in which he is also a very important player, is the top scorer with 52 goals in 100 games. In these years with his team has been at the top of the scorer's table and also in the standings by teams. 2015 was the top scorer of the Liga BBVA. Thanks to his goals, he was able to take his country to the 2018 World Cup in Russia and is currently in the last eight. His good football level is due to the dedication and effort he puts into training to improve his fitness.

1.3.-Soccer players of good level in the rest of the world during the last 3 years.

1.3.1.- Mohamed Salah

“Also known as the Pharaoh, he is an Egyptian footballer who plays at the end of Liverpool England, he was born on June 15, 1992, he has a height of 1.75 and a weight of 70 kg.” In the last three years, he has also gone through Italian teams such as ACF Fiorentina and La Roma AS, in which he obtained a good performance and role. But it was at Liverpool where Salah began to make a mark since he is on a team that plays a more competitive league and seen by the World.

Little by little playing and winning a position among the holders due to his great speed a good game in the change of pace with his left foot. In addition this year he was chosen the best player in the Premier League since he was the top scorer with 32 goals, surpassing the record of African striker Drogba and becoming the greatest African scorer in the history of the Premier League. With his team, he scored 44 goals and 16 assists in 52 games. But it is also worth noting that thanks to 2 goals from him in the last game with his country, he qualified for the World Cup after so many years Egypt has not gone; with his selection, he has 33 goals in 57 games and is considered his best player.

But in addition to football, he is also well-liked in his country because, thanks to his good salary, he has bought ambulances and improved services in Egypt, improving the standard of living of some poor or low-income people. Egypt in his continent is a selection that has resurrected his football level reaching the cup final and can qualify to the world, all this to the good performance of his great star. He is an example that when you have faith you can overcome yourself and achieve great things.

1.3.2.- Keylor Navas

He is a soccer player who plays a goalkeeper and was born in Costa Rica, on December 15, 1986. He currently plays for Real Madrid, in which he is the starting goalkeeper due to his good performance, but it should be remembered that he was growing little by little in smaller clubs like Levante UD in Spain and coming from a country where football is not It's so good.

He has won some titles of La Liga BBVA, Copa del Rey and I am part of the three-time Champions League, without any doubt, he is considered the best of his country for all that he has achieved with his club and with his country, which has gone with Keylor to these two last World Cups. Keylor has won with his national team as the most valuable player of the match, something very few in his country has achieved and he has done it 3 times. Has shown that in life is not made of names or statistics and that anyone can achieve great things with dedication and effort.

CHAPTER II

IMPACT DUE TO THE VARIETY OF GOOD LEVEL SOCCER PLAYERS.

2.1.- Development and evolution in European soccer.

"Talking about football is one of the most common issues in the European community, uniting people more than it seems. According to researchers, football is not only considered as an activity that dominates the economy and health but also as a sociocultural impact " and in my opinion I totally agree with that as society enjoys seeing their team succeed in matches and thrills them, showing us that this sport produces great feelings.

Europeans are characterized by having the best soccer leagues, due to their good economy and good training for the game. This great continent that takes great players worldwide, has the quality of having several teams in their leagues, teams of great level, better developed than in other continents. This has allowed not so big teams to have their good and faithful fans, helping to be more friendly league, because it is not so exciting to see that only win the same as always and just support them, a continent where small teams like El Girona of Spain, I beat a big one like Real Madrid.

In recent years, in Spain and in England mainly, we have seen how small or half-table teams have fought the biggest leagues, such as: The Atletico de Madrid in Spain that has beaten big teams like FC Barcelona and Real Madrid FC, taking away national cup titles and even the Liga BBVA championship and on the side of the English a newly promoted team a few years ago, like Leicester City FC, won the Premier League 2015 - 2016, giving the surprise in the world in that year and qualifying for the first time the UEFA Champions League of the following year, which came among the 8 best teams.

2.2.- Development and evolution in South American soccer.

“As many of us know, England was the cradle of football, that's where it originated, but nowadays it is said that Brazil is where this beautiful sport was developed due to its beautiful game at world level and the history it has left, being Brazil, the country that has won more cups in the world, with a total of 5.” This gives us to understand that in Europe it has always been where football was born, but in South America, it was where it began to develop and to give more excitement to society.

If we start to analyze the best players come from South America but play in big European leagues due to the great economic and football development there is, making them more competitive and difficult leagues. But South America is still a source of great players of good level and with a future, which usually ends up moving to a more advanced league like there are in Europe. South America will not have the best leagues in the world, but it has the best players and the most feared and hardened teams in the World Cups.

Unlike Europe, small teams are teams that are not known, they are most recognized in their regions or cities, but on the outside, it is difficult because only those with the greatest and best international trajectory will be heard. But we must also talk about the bars, worldwide, it is said that in America there are the most dangerous and wild bars, mainly in Argentina. Unlike Europe in which the fans are more peaceful and respectful, except for England, in which there are bars as tough as in South America.

2.3.- Development and evolution in the soccer from the rest of the world.

Well, the most outstanding thing that can be said in football, apart from the European and South American Leagues, is that football in China has evolved due to the big hiring that has been done with money, as in the US league, MLS. At the level of America, in Mexico there is a high level of football, you could say that together with Brazil and Argentina it is among the best leagues in the continent. In recent years has seen how the rest of the world is trying to continue improving their football level either thanks to the economic or sports level.

Many countries that are not so good at this sport and do not have a good track record, have shown us over the years, how important football is, because as it is the most practiced sport, these countries do not want to stay back and seek to evolve and develop their level, through schools in order to get better players and thus be able to take them to better leagues improving their level and thus being in the best soccer level for their nation. Thus giving more fame or popularity to your country to other more developed countries.

CHAPTER III

SOCCER PLAYERS OUTSIDE THE SOCCER FIELD.

3.1.-The good side of the coin.

Lionel Messi besides being a great soccer player in the fields, he is a great person outside of them, showing us solidarity and humble gestures, on the part of a person as millionaire like him. This crack directs a major campaign based on building a medical center for childhood cancer or cancer in children, through a contest that involves uploading a portrait of him on any social network and the most voted by people will be signed by the Argentinean and donated to obtain income for the cause.

Cristiano Ronaldo is considered the most supportive footballer in the world, because he has been outstanding for helping in several health issues, making several campaigns and foundations against diseases and poverty reduction. Many causes of solidarity such as a donation of more than 83 thousand dollars for a brain operation to a child and a donation of more than 165 thousand dollars for a cancer treatment center. This great footballer who is also a model has shown us that it does not matter what greatness or wealth you have, but rather to use it for a good purpose or service.

Neymar jr may not be considered the most humble, sincere and solidary footballers on and off the courts, but he has shown us that despite the great growth and fame he achieves, one must always remember the roots of one, that is why the Brazilian performs many works in his country and especially in poor areas, inaugurated new facilities of his social institute, which are foundations for poor children in Brazil. It offers free classes of soccer, volleyball, basketball, computer science, reading, languages, and many more sports and activities.

Mohamed Salah, the great African revelation in recent years, taught us that part of the success is based on being more to serve better in this society, showing great gestures of solidarity and humility, since he does not forget his native land, Egypt and every Once he visits it he goes with the purpose of helping investing in works of benefits to support his people, decided to donate 413 thousand dollars to install a plant to treat water, purchase medical services, ambulances to support his people and do as much as possible to stop the war in your country by changing the mentality of people.

3.2.-The bad side of the coin.

Well, but not everything has been positive in Messi, he also despite the millionaire that is, does not like to pay all taxes and things like this have had problems with the justice and the government of Spain, being a not so humble person according to some, but apart from that he has also shown us discriminatory and racist gestures to the fans, when he has faced certain rivals or teams. Demonstrating moments in which your patience runs out and you reevaluate people, regardless of a certain lack of respect.

Like Messi, Cristiano has also had bad episodes in his life, showing him and giving reason to his haters, which characterize him as a very selfish and individualistic person, due to his style of play, but he has also shown us bad actions to the rivals in the field, and for going out in parties, aspect for which also it is criticized as many, for being a player who shows many luxuries and who also has problems with spectators or magazines or people due to their attitudes or decisions. He is a very proud player whether he excels or not.

Neymar Jr, for many a very dramatic footballer and cheater on the courts, but outside of them as people see it. As we know now is the most expensive signing in history due to his transfer from FC Barcelona to PSG, so many consider him a very ambitious person since he showed great sympathy to this great millionaire step in his life, to leave a past humble and promising with FC Barcelona, sinking more with their weekends partying and their great investment in certain personal luxuries, which society criticizes.

3.3.-The end of the coin.

In short, we have understood that great players as people have not shown both good and bad actions, and this is because no one is perfect, of course, a professional must do the most correct and appropriate for his career, to protect and enforce his image, but going to see extreme cases in which one can fail or do something wrong by the tension or lack of patience. A Thing that happens with these players because you do not know what they have suffered or passed, but despite that, there are many people who criticize them for their mistakes.

But there are also cases, that football players seek to live a crazy life, enjoying their good times, regardless of the crazy things they can do, seek relaxation, fun, pleasure, but there are also some who seek to be happy without having to reach the fun, the which seek a good future and life. In conclusion, every footballer owns his life but should try not to get to the point of irresponsibility and fulfill their obligations with responsibility and love, since they are in a world which is criticized the least and can sink you.

CHAPTER IV

THE SURVEY

Survey applied and Analysis of the applied survey

Selecciona el curso que perteneces

42 respuestas

The survey was sent to several students from 13 to 17 years old, trying to equate the minors with the older ones, but most of the collaborators were from the Bachillerato area.

¿Qué liga te parece más competitiva?

42 respuestas

The majority of teenagers chose the Premier League, which in my opinion I also consider it the best and the most competitive for its economy and the great skill of its teams.

¿A quien consideras el mejor jugador del mundo actualmente?

42 respuestas

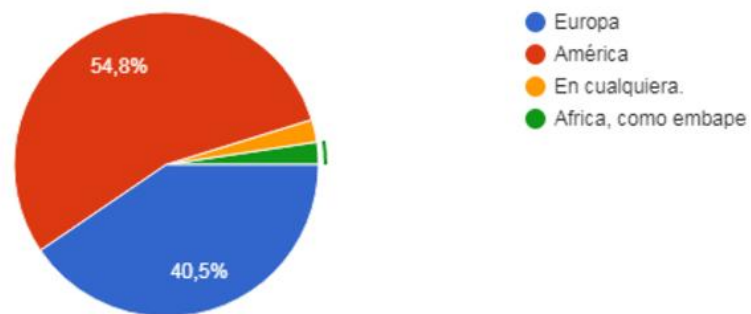

In theory, I still see a great rivalry for the supporters of Messi and Cristiano, although in the poll Messi wins and in my opinion, Messi is also, I thought there is still a great rivalry and a great match. He is very fought.

¿En qué continente crees que se originan los mejores jugadores?

42 respuestas

In conclusion, although Europe has the best leagues and teams, the best players leave our American continent, the cradle of stars.

¿Crees que el fútbol nos hace olvidar los malos momentos que pasamos?
 Argumenta tu respuesta.

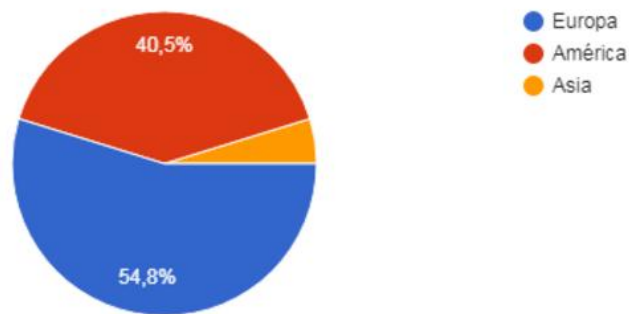

42 respuestas

In conclusion, yes, since the majority distracts them because they only focus on playing and in this way they forget their problems and concerns.

¿Cuál consideras que es el continente que más influencia recibe de la cultura futbolística en la actualidad?

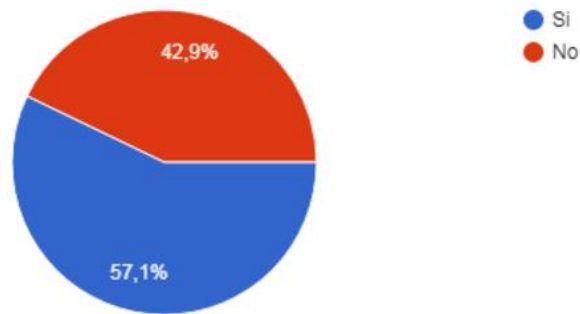

42 respuestas

In theory, the Europeans already have the best leagues or championships, for their competitiveness and great level of the teams, calling more attention to the spectators and producing income in different ways, more than in other continents.

¿Pagarías por ver las mejores ligas del mundo a diario?

42 respuestas

For me, this was one of the most difficult questions because there is a little advantage of the people who would pay to see football, knowing that nowadays there are several ways of seeing this sport without having to pay.

¿Por qué motivos consideras que el fútbol influye en la sociedad local(Guayaquil/Ecuador)? Argumenta.

42 respuestas

Porque ahora en Ecuador hay personas que decidieron jugar futbol mas como trabajo y eso hace que personas de bajos recursos puedan recibir una mejor calidad de vida.

En la sociedad en la que nos desarrollamos no tiene tanta influencia

por que es pasion

El conflicto del astillero x ejemplo

Porque de alguna u otra manera se convierte en algo sano e influyente para la juventud

A través del futbol se realizan reuniones/eventos en los que participan amigos/conocidos.

Se visten de amarillo

Cuando los equipos locales van bien la economía fluye en forma positiva

Por ser el deporte mas popular

Porque es una actividad que mueve la economía local.

Ayuda a q todos nos unamos mas por el futbol

Nos ayuda a mantenemos al dia

Well in conclusion and without many complications would be because “the guayaco” enjoys playing football and seeing his team triumph against rivals, as in the great rivalry that exists in the yard classic.

¿Por qué consideras que en la actualidad, el fútbol más que otros deportes recibe apoyo a nivel económico por parte de los gobiernos a nivel mundial ?

42 respuestas

- Porque lo ve mucha gente
- Porque es el deporte más famoso en el mundo.
- Esto para mi creo que se debe a que la mayoría de la población mundial ve este deporte y lo practica.
- Porque hay una mayor demanda de el y a través de esas ayudas el gobierno también gana dinero, además el fútbol es más conocido en todo el mundo por ende requiere más gastos para poder participar a nivel internacional
- Por la fama de este deporte y por los ingresos que produce a la gente que vive de esto
- Porque es un negocio rentable
- Por ser un deporte de nivel mundial
- Por que hay gobiernos que si piensan y no botan la plata
- Porque es la actividad que la población disfruta con mayor frecuencia y en el mundo del fútbol se maneja bastante dinero.
- Ya que hay muchas personas que estarían dispuestas a pagar por ver un partido de fútbol de su equipo favorito.
- Por los fanaticos

In conclusion, here simply would be because as it is the most popular sport and seen at the same time generates a lot of income and the government should support that source.

CONCLUSIONS

At the end of this monographic work it is concluded that:

- All those football lovers, practice it, see it and enjoy it; Since we are in an era of great figures and good competition, life is one and was made to enjoy it, so that we can all be happy.
- People have knowledge of sports and show us the great importance of football compared to other sports.
- The great variety of players of good level have made several teams improve their level and that the sport is more paired.

RECOMMENDATIONS

At the end of this work, it is recommended that:

- Everyone enjoy this sport for the purpose of good health, practice it or at least see it.
- When investigating a specific player, not only look at their statistics but also see their contribution in the teams. Not all data is real.

- When investigating the life of the players, not only fix what they do on the court but also what they do outside and about their past.
